> The following from the South Haven Me senger seems to give the other side of the controversy:

"Mn. EDITOR-I would like to ask, through In the medium of your columns, whether the citizens of South Haven generally approve of mob law. My impression is that they do not, and I for one would be gratified to obtain an expression of the popular sentiment of the right, title and interest of the above mand definition. This permission was obtained on and previous to Saturday, the 25th DEOBATE ORDER. - State of Michigan, inst. On Tuesday morning, Mr. Brott put At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Van Buren, soiden at the Probate Court for the County of Van Buren, holden at the Probate Office, in the yellass of Paw Paw, on Monday, the 20th day of fied that the members of the council had change in the year one thousand eight hundred sevent Present, Hon. Orrin N. Hilton, on at work, as was their duty. I arrived on In the matter of the estate of Abel Baras, de- the ground very shortly after Mr. Brott had put his men at work, and within half an hour of such E. Burns, praying that administration of sail estate may be granted to William W. Smith, or ber of the council appeared on the scene accompanied by one who, no doubt. considers Store all Painted New The except of the suitable person.

The except of the ordered, that Monday, the 18th day of July, 1837, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, he sudged for the hearing of said petition, and proved himself very prominent in the events that all persons interested in said estate are required to appear at a session of said court, then to be holder at the Probate Office, in the village of Paw Paw, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, that said estate, of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the True Northerene, a newspaper, printed and circularling in said county of Van Buren for three successive weeks at least previous to said day of hearing. told the president of the council and those with him that we were going to put in the side track and if we were doing so in violation of the law, that they could invoke the law for redress. This ended the parley and president and others proceeded to organize a mob, which they did, and came on the works and proceeded to uncouple and unload the cars and presented to me the alternative of backing the train off the track or having it derailed and removed, and probably destroyed. Seeing that a collision between our men and the mob was inevitable if we held our ground, I reluctantly ofdered the train off the side track and had to witness the evidence of mob law, for once, in the streets of South Haven. "No one regrets this disgraceful affair more than I do. I have been told that if I had not been so abrupt in addressing the president of the council, he would not have disgraced himself by lending himself or the influence of his official position to organize | SOUTH SIDE OF WEST MAIN STREET, and lead a mob to the destruction of private property. I am indeed sorry that I offended him or ruffled his sensitive feelings, but I have no apology to offer him for what I said. I am told he is easily "wheedled." I am not in the "wheedling" business; life is too short to waste time at it. But enough has been said, and yet the half has not been told of the true inwardness of the causes which led up to this on the part of a few of our community, to the regret of the large and better majority." COLEMAN is a finely formed horse, of excellent bone, substance and finish, a beauprolonged the session there can be no doubt. tiful bay in color, with black points, stands 16 hands high and weighs 1175. He is

ABSOLUTELY SOUND

And as perfectly gaited as any horse that ever trotted. His colts are large, finely formed, and he gives them all his superb trotting action. Although but two years in the stud, and his produce yet young, still they are uniformly strongly marked and highly prized for their fine disposition, speed, style and endurance.

COLEMAN has never been campaigned, but has trotted a well-authenticated trial

The following article, copied from the Flint "Citizen" of June 18th, shows what the horsemen of Genesee county think of this horse:

"SOLD .- On Monday last, Mayor J. C. Dayton sold his fine Hambletonian stallion "Coleman" to Judge O. N. Hilton of Paw Paw, Mich., for a consideration of $5,000, and the by turned out to sustain the authorities and horse was shipped on the same day. "Coleman" is one of the finest stock horses ever brought into Genesee county, which is famous for good drivers and road animals. He is a thoroughbred Hambletonian of the choicest strain of blood—a grand-son of the peerless old Rysdyk's Hambletonian. He has made two seasons in Flint, and the writer has yet to hear of a single colt among the large number sired which does not surpass the expectations of the owner. They are all strongly marked after the sire in color, action and disposition, all of which are of the very best; he being a natural trotter, with the style of a "Frenchman." It is with sincere regret the horsemen of this vicinity see this noble animal leave the county."

> I will stand COLEMAN the balance of this season at the Fair Grounds at $35 to Insure. Next year will Double the Fee.
